are invited to be present and especially the parents of the children.

Mr. Nathaniel Disbrow, 84 years old, who introduced Decoration day here, will lead the procession of several hundred little tots in the first parade on 30th inst., and assisted by Mr. E. T. Mears will hoist the Stars and Stripes over hall of Jr. Order of American Mechanics.

The school grounds of our High School will be enlarged by the purchase of lot adjoining same of Mr.
Carpenter for the sum of $600, which will give the children of the school larger playground. The dwelling on the Carpenter property will be added to the school building and be used as a music room. Another teacher and the eighth will be employed another season.

Harborton.

Times are booming here, everybody working, factory in full swing, trappers doing well.

Mr. B. Custis is making a short visit to his mother, Mrs. Helen Custis.

Mrs. Sydney Guy, of Cape Charles, paid a flying visit this week to her friend, Mrs. B. P. Penny.

Several of our young men have had very long faces and one or two brain storms since certain young ladies have gone home.

Capt. E. G. Evans, engineer, S. Clifford, and assistant engineer, Marvin Evans, left on Tuesday's boat for Baltimore to take charge of fishing steamers.

Our ball team is doing good work on their Western tour, winning two out of three games with Wichita, Kansas, the 1907 champions of the Western Association.

A petition is being circulated amongst the tax payers to have the Highway Commissioners survey the Main St. channel again as it is again getting dangerous. All buoys having sunk out of sight.

The searching parties out to look for the road machine, all report blank results. Two private detectives scoured both counties and found signs of it around Keller, seeing two scoops.
We are yet in hopes of seeing it once more in the 20th century.

School closed on the 8th and we were sorry to see the last of the teachers leave for their homes on Monday.
Truly no faculty has ever won the love and esteem of a community as ours did, through their untiring efforts to advance and educate our children and for their sweet dispositions. We wish their every success in life and may they be as successful in all their undertakings as they made our school.

Mrs. W. L. Hope is visiting her brother, Mr. J. D. Watts.

Mrs. E. W. Bundick and daughter, of Franklin City, are guests of Mrs.
E. S. Johnson.

Several of our people attended the unveiling of the monument at Makemie Park Thursday.

The Baptist Young Peoples Union gave a treat of ice cream, etc., to its members and invited friends Friday night at the Baptist Church.

At the base ball game played here Tuesday afternoon between Accomac and Parksley teams, the game was won by the latter at the score of 12 to 4.

Misses Kathleen and Marie Parsons, who have been spending the winter with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Parsons, have returned to their home at Watha, N. C. Mr.
Parsons accompanied them.

Mr. George Beasley was taken to the hospital at Salisbury by Dr. F.
Drummond Wednesday, suffering with appendicitis, where an operation was performed. The patient was doing well Thursday morning.

Mr. L. C. Gordy is in attendance as a delegate at the meeting of the State lodges of I. O. O. F. being held in Lynchburg this week. He will also visit his daughter, Miss Annie, at Blackstone, who is a pupil in school there, before returning.

Mrs. Bertie Shreves, wife of Mr.
Frederick Shreves, died at her home at Metompin, Tuesday, of pneumonia, aged about 23 years. Funeral services were held over her remains Wednesday, conducted by Rev. R. F. Staples, after which she was taken by train to her former home at Kleg Grange, Md., where interment was made.

Mr. Lee Dennis, of this place, and Miss Maude Howard, of Pocomoke City, were married at the bride's home Wednesday. Rev. R. F. Staples performed the ceremony. Mr. Ernest Dennis, brother of the groom, was best man, Mrs. Hayman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.
They will reside here. Their many friends wish them a long and prosperous married life.

Hallwood.

Messrs. Leon Scott and Charlie Corbin left a few days ago to accept positions in Chester, Pa.

Dr. W. G. Trow, of Washington, D.
C., who has decided to locate with us seems to please all concerned.

Mr. Alden Lewis, hurt in a frolic some time ago, has recovered sufficiently to resume duties again.

Mr. John T. Lewis, cashier Hall-wood Bank, is taking his vacation.

Mr. Stevenson, of Pocomoke, is relieving him.

Mr. E. T. Ross, Sr., is rebuilding his house on Railroad Ave., which will be very much improved over the old style when completed.

Be sure to watch for the date of our coming drama, "The Nigger Night School." If you want to spend an evening in laughter arrange to see it.

The Hallwood Feed & Supply Co. has been doing a coloring business of late.
After completing their job their building will appear middling and bran-color.

An order of Independent Odd Fellows will be organized here in the near future, with prospects of becoming very prominent with citizens of our vicinity.

There will be a strawberry supper held at the Mechanics hall Saturday, May 23rd, for the benefit of Hallwood M. P. Church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Our energetic barber, Mr. A. H.
Smith, after shielding his face for some time with a case of measles, has decided to appear on the front again ready for business.

The boys of our town have organized a ball team for the season, with Dr.
W. G. Trow as manager. If you wish to learn the whereabouts of the greasy pig, write the manager for engagements.

Mr. O. D. Carter, second trick man at our station, seems to be wearing his life away for some unknown cause to his friends, but it is believed, because the little girl in black does not appear on the porch any more.

Quite a number of our sports attended the ball game played at Parksley recently between Chincoteague and the home team. Chincoteague seems to be all right so long as they can get the odor of the salt air, but our main land breeze never blows in their favor.

School Trustees Elected.

At a meeting of County Electoral School Board, held at Accomac C. H., April 29th, the following trustees were Deaths.

In the death of Miss Virginia Beach, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Beach, which occurred on May 7, 1908, at Blackstone Female Institute, from typhoid fever, this entire community has plunged into profound sorrow.

"Virginia," as she was familiarly and lovingly known, was, from childhood, beautiful in face and character, intellectual and musical—a rare and lovely flower in which the neighborhood took a fond pride. Why an All Wise Providence should have called her away at the age of fifteen, just on the threshold of a promising womanhood, is far past our earthly understanding; but this we know, the fragrance of her sweet innocent life will linger long over this community as a benediction and a blessing.

Her remains were brought to Keller Station Friday accompanied by her parents, sister, and friends. Long before train time both the old and young of Keller and many friends from surrounding neighborhoods gathered at station or at the Beach home, their sad faces and unbroken silence showing how deeply they loved "Virginia." It will be a long time before the silence and sadness of that train-time will be forgotten.

After funeral services Saturday morning at Oak Grove M. E. Church, South, of which she was a member, she was buried in Mt. Holly Cemtery, Onancock. The immense throng of people present and the banks of gorgeous flowers spoke eloquently of their deep feeling. With her heartbroken parents and stricken relatives, we mingle our tears of sorrow and sympathy.

Keller, Va., May 11, 1908.

Mr. S. Frank Fisher, a prosperous farmer and a highly respected and esteemed citizen, in perfect health and vigor, it was thought, died soon after retiring last Monday night and before a physician could be called to see him, aged about 45 years. His wife and several children survive him.

Mr. George R. Terry, of Hallwood, prominent in church affairs and a worthy and useful citizen, retired in his usual health last Thursday night and died in a short time thereafter, aged about 65 years. His wife survives him. After funeral services on Wednesday his remains were laid to rest in burying ground near his late home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Byrd, a most estimable lady, wife of Mr. Frank W.
Byrd, died after an illness of several weeks at her home in Pocomoke City on Wednesday, aged about 45 years.
Her husband in his great bereavement has the sympathy of hundreds of friends in this county.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, William J. Wilson, who departed this life February 4th, 1908, at his home in Exmore.
He was sick six weeks with Bright's disease, a great sufferer, but patient and good through all his suffering.
He said he was resigned to his Master's will in all things and resigned to death. He passed away quietly at 5:30 p. m., Tuesday, February 4, 1908.
Gone but not forgotten.

Precious darling, he has left us, Left us yes forever more,
But we hope to meet our loved one,
On that bright and happy shore, Lonely the heart and sad the hours, Since our dear one has gone, But oh! a brighter home than ours, In heaven is now his own.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure, Earth the lonely cascot keeps,
And the sunbeams love to linger, Where our dear papa sleeps.
When we leave this world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one,
In our Father's mansion fair.

Beyond the smiling and the weeping, Beyond the waking and the sleeping,
Our loved one rests in slumber deep,
In silent and eternal sleep.
Not now, but in the coming years,
It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears, And there sometime we'll understand.

We have lost our darling father,
He has bid us all adieu,
He has gone to live in heaven,
And his form is lost to view.
Oh! that dear one, how we loved him, Oh! how hard to give him up,
But an angel came down for him,
And removed him from our flock.

It is said that one we cherish, Should be taken from our home,
But the joys that do not perish, Live in memory alone.

All the years we have spent together,
All the happy golden hours, Shall be cherished in remembrance, Fragrant sweets from memory's flowers.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in thy grave so low, Thou no more will join our number, Thou no more our sorrows know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in heaven my husband to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

We miss thee from our home, dear husband,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast, We miss the sunshine of thy face, We miss thy kind and loving voice, Thy fond and loving care,
Our home is dark without thee, We miss you everywhere.

Farewell dear papa, sweet thy rest, Weary with years and worn with pain, Farewell 'till in some happy place, We shall behold thy face again,
'Tis our to miss thee all our days, Thine in the Lord to rest for so,
He giveth his beloved sleep.
